

Essay Prompts on To Be Human

"Humanity through suffering"

Many literary works explore how suffering reveals what it means to be human. Analyze how a character's suffering in a chosen work contributes to a deeper understanding of the human experience.

"The tension between reason and emotion"

Being human often involves a conflict between logic and feeling. Discuss how this conflict is portrayed in a literary work, and what it suggests about human nature.

"The human condition and moral choice"

How do the moral decisions a character makes reveal key aspects of what it means to be human? Use one or more texts to support your analysis.

"Connection and isolation as human experiences"

Explore how literature portrays the need for connection and the pain of isolation as fundamental to the human experience. Use specific examples from a literary text.