

General Discussion Questions on Family

Which family member has the most influence over the protagonist, and why?

How does conflict within the family drive the story forward?

Are certain family members cast as “heroes” or “villains,” or is it more complex?

Do you see echoes of the family in this story in modern life? Why or why not?

Did the story make you rethink what family means to you?

In what ways does the family in the story challenge or reinforce societal norms?