

General Discussion Questions on Isolation

How does isolation shape the thoughts, decisions, and behaviors of the main character(s)?

In what ways does loneliness affect a character's perception of reality?
Are there examples of mental or emotional deterioration?

How do relationships (or the lack thereof) influence the theme of isolation?

Are there moments where isolation leads to self-discovery or personal growth?

Does the text suggest that isolation is inherently negative, or can it be necessary or transformative?

