

Essay Prompts on Identity

How do the characters in the text struggle with understanding who they are versus who society expects them to be?

Are societal norms around gender and sexuality portrayed as restrictive, liberating, or both?

How is identity connected to power, privilege, or marginalization?

Are there objects, places, or recurring imagery that mirror the characters' journey toward self-discovery?