

General Discussion Questions on Oppression of Women

In what ways are women silenced or denied a voice, and how do they resist?

How do cultural, social, or religious traditions contribute to the oppression of women in the text?

What role does marriage, family, or domestic life play in maintaining gender inequality?

How do women characters navigate the tension between duty/expectation and personal desire?

How do male characters reinforce or challenge the structures of female oppression?