

General Discussion Questions on Segregation

In what ways are the lives of characters limited or defined by segregation?

How do different characters respond to or resist the boundaries placed on them?

How does segregation connect with other issues in the text, such as class, gender, justice, or education?

What moral dilemmas do characters face because of segregation?

In what ways do the themes of segregation remain relevant today?

How did reading this work affect your own perspective on segregation?