

General Discussion Questions on Identity

In what ways does the text show the tension between individual identity and societal expectations?

What symbols, motifs, or recurring images in the text are linked to questions of identity?

How does the setting (home, exile, borderlands, urban/rural) impact characters' self-understanding?

What role does memory, history, or heritage play in shaping a character's sense of self?

Did you identify with any of the characters' struggles with identity? Why or why not?
