

Essay Prompts on Injustice

Character and Injustice:

Choose a character who faces systemic or personal injustice. How does this injustice shape their identity, choices, and relationships?

The Role of Setting in Injustice:

Analyze how the setting contributes to the experience or perpetuation of injustice. Does the society portrayed support or challenge unjust systems?

Author's Purpose and Injustice:

How does the author use literary techniques (such as symbolism, tone, or irony) to critique injustice? What message is the author conveying about justice and fairness?

Silence and Voice:

Explore how the theme of silence versus speaking out is used. When do characters choose to speak, and when are they silenced? What are the consequences?
