

Prejean, Helen: *1939

Dead Man Walking, 1993 – Characters

Sister Helen Prejean: The author and narrator, a Roman Catholic nun.

Elmo Patrick Sonnier: A death row inmate at Louisiana State Penitentiary, convicted of murdering a teenage couple.

Robert Lee Willie: Another death row inmate Prejean advises.

Eddie Sonnier: Patrick Sonnier's brother.

Vernon Harvey: The father of Faith Hathaway, Robert Willie's victim.

Elizabeth Harvey: Faith Hathaway's mother and Vernon's wife.

Lloyd LeBlanc: The father of David LeBlanc, one of Patrick Sonnier's victims.

Major Kendall Cody: The warden at Angola during Willie's execution.

Chava Colon: A friend from the Prison Coalition who first invites Prejean.

Tom Dybdahl: Head of the Prison Coalition and Prejean's close friend.

Millard Farmer: A death row attorney from Atlanta.

Bill Quigley: A religious Louisiana attorney, supporting Prejean's efforts.

Governor Edwin Edwards: Louisiana's governor during the events.

Warden Frank Blackburn: The prison official overseeing Camp F, where the death house is located.