

Souad: *~1962

Burned Alive, 2003 – Characters

Souad – The protagonist and author, who fell in love in her West Bank village where premarital relationships were considered dishonorable.

Brother-in-law – Souad's unnamed brother-in-law who was tasked with punishing her for her perceived dishonor.

Jacqueline – A European aid worker who intervened and helped Souad receive medical care.

Souad's Mother – While herself a battered wife, she disclosed Souad's suspected pregnancy to her father, leading to the punishment.